

Susan Norman

Riding in Lightness Clinic

Thursday, April 23, 2015 – Sunday, April 26, 2015

Timberlein Ranch, 9455 Fawn Lake Drive, Stacy, MN 55079

Susan Norman has extensive knowledge of French Riding in Lightness (Légèreté). Born in England, and now based in Texas, Susan has worked with a great many students and their horses in various disciplines (dressage, eventing, etc.), in France, the UK, and USA.

Susan has a deep understanding of equine biomechanics giving her enhanced insight into a horse's way of going.

She studied in France with Philippe Karl, a French Master of Riding, at the Cadre Noir, Saumur. She also worked for many years with the late Jean-Claude Racinet, another acknowledged Master of the French style of Riding in Lightness.

Susan has established herself as a popular and exceptionally able teacher who can help riders of all levels to advance.

SUSAN NORMAN CLINIC – Thursday, April 23, 2015

ACADEMIC DAY

Topic: Half Pass

Academic Day is a day of progressive learning. It begins with a lecture. Individual lessons structured around the day's topic follow. It ends with a group discussion to wrap-up.

As before, full participation in the Academic Day class is by Susan's invitation only. She invites those she feels possess a good understanding of the basic concepts of riding in lightness and who are dedicated to its principles. Advanced ability of horse and or rider is not a prerequisite. If you are interested in participating in future academic days, please discuss your interest with Susan during the clinic.

Full participant cost is $175 per rider/horse combination (invitation only). This is for the full day, including: Susan's opening lecture, an individual lesson (structured around the days topic), auditing the other lessons, and a wrap-up discussion.

Auditor cost is $75. This is for the full day, including: Susan's opening lecture, auditing the individual lessons (structured around the days topic), and a wrap-up discussion.

Videoring will be restricted to your personal lesson for your private use. Please do not post clinic video on the web. Thank you.

Some beverages and snacks will be provided but we suggest you bring your own lunch, a notebook and a comfortable chair.
